Section 199A Deduction

Click on the buttons below to read about the new tax reform changes including the Qualified Business Income Deduction (QBID), the death of Meals and Entertainment as we see it and some mock 2017 tax returns showing a side-by-side comparison to 2018 under the new rules, especially aimed at business owners.

A bunch of Section 199A stuff is below. The first set of buttons outlines the basics and also the final Section 199A regulations that were released January 2019. In addition, we've applied these new rules to things like S Corps, rentals and reasonable shareholder salary.

But if you cannot sleep one night, and need to see some of the 335 comments the IRS received, this information might be just what you need. All kidding aside, you'll see how the final regulations (see above) were shaped from the initial law.

Client Reviews and Expectations

When doing business, either online or face-to-face, you want peace of mind that things will go smoothly. Furthermore, if things don't go as planned, then you want comfort in knowing they will be taken care of. WCG (formerly Watson CPA Group) takes customer service and satisfaction very seriously.

Business Support Services

We are not bookkeepers- we are accountants. Sorry for being snooty but accountants look at things very differently than bookkeepers. Most bookkeepers simply memorialize your transactions. Accountants offer insight and advice. And while we don't like to admit it, we are payroll specialists too. We are a full service tax preparation, accounting and small business consultation firm, and we look forward to working with you!
