Your estimated annual Reasonable Compensation: $193,762

Thank you for entrusting Jason Watson of Watson CPA Group with your Reasonable Compensation analysis. This report provides a reasonable estimate of the value of services rendered to your S Corporation based on your responsibilities and the duties that you perform annually. Reasonable Compensation is defined by the IRS as "The value that would ordinarily be paid for like services by like enterprises under like circumstances".

The calculated salary of $193,762 was determined to be reasonable compensation based on the type of work performed, the skill level of the work performed and the number of hours the work is performed annually. You told us that you work 2080 hours per year in [redacted]. Our analysis indicates the annual salary of $193,762 would be a reasonable cost to hire employee(s) to perform the duties and responsibilities that you currently perform.

2019 Report for

How was my "Annual Salary" or "Reasonable Compensation" calculated?

Watson CPA Group relies on data provided by Reasonable Compensation Reports, Bureau of Labor Statistics and U.S. Census data to calculate a concise, independent, unbiased Reasonable Compensation figure.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics defines "year-round, full-time" employment as 2,080 hours per year (40 hours per week). The BLS definition is adhered to by the Court and IRS Expert in McAlary v. IRS. If you selected 40+ hours per week your Reasonable Compensation figure will reflect a reasonable salary for someone working year-round, full-time, even if you work more than 40 hours per week.

This report blends and weights the duties and responsibilities you perform annually in eight common categories with the duties and responsibilities you perform specific to your business generating an annual salary that would be reasonable to 'replace' yourself within your company.

Your annual salary or reasonable compensation represents an estimate of the amount it would cost to "replace" you, based on:

- Your answers to our interview
- Bureau of Labor Statistics data
- Census data
- Reasonable Compensation Reports database of wages

Your Reasonable Compensation figure includes taxable Medicare wages & bonuses, healthcare and flexible spending accounts (FSA). It does not include non-taxable fringe benefits such as vehicle or vehicle allowance, stock options, company loans and other items not reported on a W-2 as taxable compensation.

Your actual replacement salary could vary considerably from our estimate, especially if the information you provided differs from your actual duties and responsibilities.

Methodology

This report uses the Cost Approach to determine a Reasonable Compensation figure. The Cost Approach takes into consideration all the tasks a business owner provides to their company, such as administration, accounting, marketing, purchasing etc. (also referred to as the Cost Approach).

The Cost Approach breaks down the time spent by the owner into the various tasks performed; wage levels are assigned for each task based on the owner’s proficiency, and then added back together to obtain a hypothetical Replacement Cost for the owner.

The Cost approach is most accurate when used to determine Reasonable Compensation for owners of a closely-held business where the owner performs multiple job duties (wears many hats).

Other considerations before deciding on a final Reasonable Compensation figure

For the majority of shareholder-employees, the Reasonable Compensation figure calculated in this report should not require adjustments. However there are circumstances, rules and situations Watson CPA Group may take into consideration before recommending a final reasonable compensation figure. The list below is not exhaustive and Watson CPA Group may make adjustments for circumstances and situations not listed.

- Compensation of Non-Owner Employees
- Salary History
- Travel Requirements
- Personal Guarantee of Debt
- Key Relationships and/or Contracts
- Financial Condition of Company
- Distribution History

The courts have used a variety of factors to "Stress Test" Reasonable Compensation figures. Four well recognized lists of factors are below. Watson CPA Group may stress test your Reasonable Compensation figure against some or all of the factors used by the courts and the IRS and recommend adjustments.
